Psalm: 106.19-31 Page 315

First Exhortation: The Worship of the Triune God: Joshua 24.14; Jeremiah 10.1-16

Pray that the People of this land would worship the true God, calling upon Him by Jesus Christ

1. Pray that our neighbors and fellow citizens of this land would put away the idols of this age, and serve the true and living God, and that the worship of false religions such as Islam, Hinduism, Buddhism, Taoism, and others would cease as an offense to the true God of Scripture in our land, by their adherents turning to the true God. (1 Thessalonians 1.2-10)
2. Pray that sub-Christian cults and sects would also cease from their soul-damning errors and turn to the Lord, that such as are lost in the errors of the Jehovah's Witnesses, Mormons, Roman Catholicism, Arminianism, Christian Science, and others, would repent and call upon the Name of the Lord in truth. (Revelation 3.1)
3. Pray that all men might learn to put away the idols of the heart: Pride, Greed, Willfulness, Sensuality, Antinomianism, Money or material wealth, Country or Nationalism, Military Might, Physical Strength or prowess, and all other things that displace the Lord as the object of our devotion in our lives—that these sins would be wiped out of our hearts. (Ezekiel 14.1-11)
4. Pray for all those who call upon the Name of the true and living God that they would worship Him as He has commanded in Scripture, and that all second commandment idolatry would also cease—that the leaders of Churches would search the Scriptures, hearing the Lord as to how He would be worshipped in Spirit and Truth. (Deuteronomy 12.28-32; John 4.24)
5. Pray for true reverence in our approach to the Lord, wrought by the Spirit in the hearts of God's people according to His ordinary means of working by His Word, that the people of God would approach the Lord with the reverent fear and service of adopted sons and daughters, with humility and confession of sin. (Micah 6.6-8)
6. Pray for an end to self-righteousness, that the Lord would bring down the idol of pride, the notion that we are accepted according to our good works, the robustness of our faith, our earthly heritage, our Church affiliation, and all other false notions that we might approach the Lord only upon the work of Christ. (Hebrews 10.19-25)
7. Pray that all who appear before God to worship Him would come only by the way of our Mediator and Surety, Christ, and that all other approaches to the Triune God would be understood for the soul-destroying idolatry they truly are, that none would come to worship the true God by any other than Christ, giving thanks for His mediation. (John 14.6)
8. Pray for an end to all superstitions, holy places and spaces, and all other dregs of idol worship, for taking away of images from our Churches, all by godly confession and repentance. (John 4.21-23; 1 Tim. 2.8)

Psalm: 81.1-10 Page 236

Second Exhortation: Praying Through Deuteronomy, Chapter 26: Deuteronomy 26.1-19

Prayer re: First-fruit, ministry, humility, affliction, deliverance, satisfaction, tithe, truth, obedience, covenant, holiness.

1. Pray regarding the first-fruits and our devotion to the Lord, that He would get the best, the utmost, the first portion, our strength, and not the dregs of our thoughts, words, and deeds, offering them to Him with joy. (Deut. 26.1-4)
2. Pray that ministers would minister in uprightness, not for themselves, instructing and aiding the people of God in their devotion to the Lord, as "helpers of their joy" not lords over their consciences. (Deut. 26.3-4)
3. Pray for humility for the people of God, remembering that we were dead in trespasses and sins, yet the Lord has delivered us from bondage, brought us into His presence, and given us beyond what could ask or think. (Deut. 26.5-9)
4. Pray that when we are afflicted we would not complain, but cry out to the Lord our God for deliverance. (Deut. 26.7)
5. Pray that we would make a good use of our affliction and subsequent deliverance, that we would learn from the Lord's kind corrections and chastisements, as His dear children, looking unto Him with confidence in His care. (Deut. 26.10)
6. Pray for a proper outlook concerning temporal and spiritual goods, that we would not covet what we do not have, but that God's people would understand the goodness of the Lord in temporal blessing, but especially in spiritual riches and prosperity, knowing our God and His mercy, grace, salvation, peace, spiritual supply, with contentment. (Deut. 26.10-11)
7. Pray concerning the tithe, that the people of God would be a tithing people, and a generous people, caring for the widow, stranger, orphan, the Levite, and any who are in need, that those who are of the people of God would not be destitute, but living in and among the Church, would know the kindness of the Lord and His people. (Deut. 26.12)
8. Pray concerning the things that go forth from our lips when we stand before the Lord, that we would not "offer the sacrifice of fools" but that our words would be true and sincere, that statements of devotion to the Lord would be given in sincerity, not by any hypocrisy or coercion, that the Lord's people would praise Him in truth. (Deut. 26.13-15)
9. Pray that antinomianism would cease, that the Church would embrace the commandments of the Lord evangelically, endeavoring to be obedient in everything, receiving sound Biblical teaching from their ministers. (Deut. 26.16)
10. Pray that all God's people would be "covenanters" with Him, that there would be none who hold themselves aloof from Him, avouching Him for their God, as He has avouched them who come to Him to be His. (Deut. 26.17-18)
11. Pray that this covenanting would be unto His people's holiness, testifying that our God is holy. (Deut. 26.19)
