CHRIST COVENANT REFORMED PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH
But ye are come unto mount Sion… And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant (Hebrews 12.22, 24)
SCRIPTURE ALONE—GRACE ALONE—FAITH ALONE—BY CHRIST ALONE—TO GOD ALONE BE GLORY! REFORMED. AND EVER REFORMING

Opening Prayer Wednesday Prayer Meeting, 11/11/2026

Psalm: 25.1-7; Page 56

First Exhortation: Sound Doctrine: 1 Timothy 1.1-11; Titus 2.1-15;

Pray for Sound Doctrine, and the Removal of Errors, in the Church.

1. Pray for those responsible for the ministry of the Word in our churches, that they would watch over one another, take heed to the doctrine taught in our schools and churches, that the Lord would be pleased to root out all false doctrine and ungodly practice by the means of good order and discipline among the Elders of the Church. (1 Timothy 4.16)
2. Pray that the Lord would grant to His people a love of the truth, hatred of error and schism from Christ, that the fear of the Lord that is the beginning of wisdom and knowledge, that they might know how to discern truth from error, that they would have the gift of spiritual competence to prove all things, holding fast to that which is good. (Prov. 9.10; 1 Thess 5.14)
3. Pray that the people of God would overcome the natural temptation to turn their ears to fables, that ministers would not teach fables or worldly doctrine, but that the pure Word of the Lord would go forth from our pulpits, and that the Lord would bring down all flattering lips in the teaching office. (Psalm 12.3; 2 Timothy 4.1-4)
4. Pray for humility in our Pastors and Elders, and in all our members, submitting our whole selves to the pure teaching of the Scripture, not proudly twisting Scripture to our own destruction, but receiving the good Word of God with faith and love, walking in those old paths, wherein is life. (Jeremiah 6.16; 2 Peter 3.16)
5. Pray for these necessary doctrines to be truly and soundly taught in our pulpits, and used rightly in the training of our teachers: The Scriptures as the Only Rule of Faith and Obedience; Predestination and Election; The Free Grace of God in our Salvation; The Complete and Finished Work of Christ, the Inability of Sinners, of themselves, to Call upon Him; God's Absolute Sovereignty and Power over all Things; Creation in Six Days, and Keeping of Sabbath; Salvation by Grace alone, through Faith Alone, by Christ Alone. (Exodus 20.9-11; Ephesians 1.3-14; 2.8-10)
6. Pray that the Lord would bring down the traditions and doctrines of men that have obtained in the Church, that proper order and discipline would prevail in the historic use of the 3 marks of the Church, that false Churches, having devolved into synagogues of Satan, would be brought down, and true, faithful Churches established. (Colossians 2.4-23)
7. Pray for a proper use of confessions of faith and secondary standards as a way to maintain Doctrinal Integrity, as settled interpretations of Scripture, and that as Ministers and Elders vow to uphold the teaching of such secondary standards, that they would keep those vows, and preserve that historic Scriptural doctrine. (1 Timothy 3.14-16)

Second Exhortation: Praying Through Deuteronomy, Chapter 31: Deuteronomy 31.1-30

Prayer re: Succession, Canaanites, Service, Ordination, Scripture, Worship, Warning, Complacency, Witness

1. Pray for sound plans of succession of officers in faithful Churches, that young men would be pointed toward Church office early, that they would continue to lead the people of God as together they follow the Lord. (Deut. 31.1-3)
2. Pray that the people of God would do battle with the Canaanites of our age, casting down all high things that exalt themselves against the knowledge of God, bringing every thought captive to the obedience of Christ, warring lawfully. (Deut. 31.3-4)
3. Pray that being delivered out of the hand of our enemies, we would serve the Lord without fear, in obedience, holiness, and righteousness before Him all the days of our lives, serving Him with courage, following Christ always. (Deut. 31.5-6)
4. Pray for the commissioning of new officers, that they receive a proper charge, know their duty before them, that the Lord would go with them, that they would not turn aside to the issues of the world, but preach Christ always. (Deut. 31.7-8)
5. Pray for the Church's use of Scripture, that she would receive it as the very Word of God, read it often, that the Lord would deliver from error and tendentious reading, that ministers would not preach their bias, but truth. (Deut. 31.9-10)
6. Pray for the worship of the Church, that all her members would gather together, men, women, children, strangers, etc. and that hearing the Word of God, all may learn to fear Him in their stations, that the Church might live before the world in testimony to the truth in word and deed, and that the Lord children would grow up to know Him. (Deut. 31.11-13)
7. Pray that the Church would heed the warnings of Scripture, that she would not be presumptuous, proud, or careless concerning the Lord's Word and ways, but heeding His warnings, that the Lord would give steadfastness. (Dt. 31.14-18)
8. Pray that the Church would not grow complacent by reason of the Lord's goodness, but with humility remember her poor estate apart from the Lord, making use of His goodness for holiness and doctrinal integrity, that false imaginations would not carry us away with error, but that we would cleave to the Lord. (Deut. 31.19-21)
9. Pray for the Church and her confidence in Scripture's preservation, that as the Law of Moses was written out to the end, and given to the Levites to keep, so also we would have confidence that this words persists to today. (Deut. 31.22-27)
10. Pray that the Church would receive the witness of the Lord our God in His Word, that heeding His warning, we would not provoke Him to anger in apostasy, idolatry, following human tradition, turning aside to carnal remedy, corrupting ourselves, taking heed to systems of thought that depart from the Lord, but hearing Him, we would remain in truth. (Deut. 31.28-30)
